

Melton's Approach to Jewish Learning

- A University-quality, two year program of Jewish study developed at Hebrew University of Jerusalem
- Explore Jewish texts and investigate issues of Jewish thought, practice, ethics and history
- A unique pluralistic format that encourages dialogue between people from different backgrounds
- Core Melton meets weekly for two hours per week for 30 weeks each year
- Classes designed to fit the real lives of Adults-NO Homework, NO Tests, KNOW Judaism

The Melton Curriculum 2018-19

Ethics of Jewish Living is a text-centered approach to the study of Jewish ethical foundations and includes discussions relating to justice, the sanctity of life, death, sexuality and community.

Crossroads of Jewish Living presents the significant moments that have shaped Jewish history from the biblical period through the modern age using a broad range of historical texts.

JCC Wednesdays 9:30-11:45 (October 3, 2018- May 29, 2019)

Tuition: $500 J members, $600 others

Text Books: $75 for all students

$100 non-refundable deposit will reserve your place in the class.

Payment options are as follows:

- Pay in full today
- Pay deposit today and remaining balance on October 7, 2018
- Pay deposit today and equal monthly payments with balance paid May 28, 2019

Please circle preferred date of payment: 7th 15th 21st 28th

I authorize the Jewish Community Center of Dallas to charge my credit card below per the above payment plan:

Name (Please print) _____

Address _____

City _____ Zip _____ Email _____

Home Phone _____ Mobile _____

Check (payable to the JCC) enclosed for $ _____

Credit Card Number (Visa or Mastercard)

Expiration Date

Signature _____

Date _____

Please return this form with payment to: Melton School, Aaron Family JCC, 7900 Northaven Road, Dallas, TX 75230, 214-368-4709 (fax). Payment plans and scholarships may be available, please contact Melton Director, Rachele Weiss Crane 214-239-7128 or rweisscrane@jccdallas.org.

